Fr. Roger's Letter

Dear Friends in St. Dominic

The Fourth Sunday of Easter is traditionally called the Sunday of the Good Shepherd, and it is also the World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Our Lord, is the shepherd who wants to lead us to green pastures if we respond to his call. St. Peter in the First Reading explains to his astounded listeners how they can approach and enter into Jesus's flock: through faith in Christ and Baptism. Peter has just concluded his discourse at Pentecost and given testimony to the Risen Christ as Savior to those who believe in him. Baptism is rightly called the door which gives access to the other sacraments, because it makes us members of Christ, incorporates us into the Church, and makes us share in his mission. It is thanks to Baptism that the Good Shepherd transforms us into his sheep makes us a part of his flock.

Peter describes this invitation as a call by God to whomever the Lord wishes. The most fundamental call is to holiness, to repent and believe in Christ, to be forgiven and to receive the Holy Spirit. Baptism is the first step in leading a holy life. In this sense, everyone has a vocation, and some, like Peter, the Apostles, and our pastors, are called to help us discover and answer the call as well.

In the Second Reading St. Peter reminds us that Christ is the shepherd and guardian of our souls and that we are called to follow him by imitating him as well as accepting his guidance and protection. As at Pentecost, Peter speaks of a call by our Lord, and in this reading, he explains what we are called to do: to be patient in suffering for doing what is good, knowing that it is a source of grace and an imitation of Christ. The Lord does not call us to do something that he has not done himself. The Shepherd laid down his life for us, his sheep, and he gathers us back into his flock, no matter how we have gone astray. He did not hand himself over to evil men alone; he surrendered to His Heavenly Father, and the Father did justice for him by raising him from the dead and opening the way to our salvation. Like the Apostles that fateful night of his betrayal, we too were scattered like sheep, but the shepherd and guardian of our souls has gathered together all those who seek his protection and care.

In the Gospel Our Lord teaches us that the only way to satisfy the call to holiness in our souls is through him. The call to holiness is a call to recognize Our Lord as the path and source of holiness. Our Lord uses the image of sheep who are accustomed to the voice of its shepherd and frightened by the voice of anyone else. The call to holiness strikes a chord in us, and that chord will clash with anything not in tune with Our Lord. Temptation also makes an appeal to our hearts, and Our Lord teaches us that it will rob us of something if we let it. It is the voice of a stranger and, as our parents always taught us, we do not talk to strangers. However, in his teaching Our Lord does not identify with the shepherd or the gatekeeper of the sheepfold. He describes himself as the gate to the sheepfold. Our Lord is not the only one who wants his sheep; he is just the one who has their best interests in mind. The flock in the Gospel is already gathered. It is only through Christ that they can be safe in the sheepfold or led to green pastures. Our pastors are charged to shepherd the sheep, but they can only do that through Christ. If they do not remain united to Christ, part of his flock, they will lead their sheep astray.

Sincerely yours in Christ
Rev. Roger Estorque

Queridos Amigos en San Dominic,

El Cuarto Domingo de Pascua es tradicionalmente llamado Domingo del Buen Pastor, y también es el Día Mundial de Oración por las Vocaciones. Nuestro Señor, es el pastor que quiere llevarnos a pastos verdes si respondemos a su llamado. San Pedro en la Primera Lectura explica a sus asombrados oyentes cómo pueden acercarse y entrar en el rebaño de Jesús: a través de la fe en Cristo y el Bautismo. Pedro acaba de concluir su discurso en Pentecostés y dio testimonio de Cristo resucitado como Salvador a los que creen en él. El bautismo es justamente llamado la puerta que da acceso a los otros sacramentos, porque nos hace miembros de Cristo, nos incorpora a la Iglesia y nos hace partícipes de su misión. Es gracias al Bautismo que el Buen Pastor nos transforma en sus ovejas nos hace parte de su rebaño.

Pedro describe esta invitación como un llamado de Dios a quien quiera el Señor. El llamado más fundamental es a la santidad, a arrepentirnos y creer en Cristo, a ser perdonados ya recibir el Espíritu Santo. El bautismo es el primer paso para conducir una vida santa. En este sentido, todo el mundo tiene una vocación, y algunos, como Pedro, los Apóstoles, y nuestros pastores, están llamados a ayudarnos a descubrir y responder a la llamada también.

En la Segunda Lectura, San Pedro nos recuerda que Cristo es el pastor y guardián de nuestras almas y que estamos llamados a seguirlo imitando a Él y aceptando su guía y protección. Como en Pentecostés, Pedro habla de un llamado de nuestro Señor, y en esta lectura, él explica lo que estamos llamados a hacer: ser paciente en sufrir por hacer lo bueno, sabiendo que es una fuente de gracia y una imitación de Cristo. El Señor no nos llama a hacer algo que él mismo no ha hecho. El Pastor dio su vida por nosotros, sus ovejas, y nos recoge en su rebaño, no importa cómo nos hemos extraviado. No se entregó solo a hombres malos; Se entregó a su Padre Celestial, y el Padre hizo justicia por él levantándolo de los muertos y abriendo el camino a nuestra salvación. Como los Apóstoles esa fatídica noche de su traición, nosotros también nos esparcíamos como ovejas, pero el pastor y guardián de nuestras almas ha reunido a todos aquellos que buscan su protección y cuidado.

En el Evangelio nuestro Señor nos enseña que la única manera de satisfacer el llamado a la santidad en nuestras almas es a través de él. El llamado a la santidad es un llamado a reconocer a Nuestro Señor como camino y fuente de santidad. Nuestro Señor usa la imagen de las ovejas que están acostumbradas a la voz de su pastor y asustadas por la voz de cualquiera. El llamado a la santidad toca un acorde en nosotros, y ese acorde chocará con cualquier cosa que no esté en sintonía con Nuestro Señor. La tentación también hace un llamamiento a nuestros corazones, y Nuestro Señor nos enseña que nos robará algo si lo dejamos. Es la voz de un extraño y, como nuestros padres siempre nos enseñaron, no hablamos con extraños. Sin embargo, en su enseñanza Nuestro Señor no se identifica con el pastor o el guardián del redil. Se describe a sí mismo como la puerta del redil. Nuestro Señor no es el único que quiere sus ovejas; Él es justamente el que tiene sus mejores intereses en mente. El rebaño en el Evangelio ya está reunido. Es sólo a través de Cristo que pueden estar seguros en el redil o llevado a pastos verdes. Nuestros pastores están encargados de pastorear las ovejas, pero sólo pueden hacerlo a través de Cristo. Si no permanecen unidos a Cristo, parte de su rebaño, llevarán a sus ovejas extraviadas

¡Atentamente suyo en Cristo
Rev. Roger Estorque

THE CALL OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD

The Twenty-third Psalm, today's responsorial psalm, is arguably the best known of all the psalms. The line that reads "Even though I walk in the dark valley / I fear no evil; for you are at my side / with your rod and your staff / that give me courage" (Psalm 23:4) connects this week's scriptures to the wonderful story of the road to Emmaus, which we heard last week. The Lord Jesus, our Good Shepherd, is constantly at our side. He calls us each by name, beckoning us into a deeper relationship with him. That call, issued to each of us at the moment of our baptism, carries with it the promise of the Good Shepherd: "I came so that they might have life and have it more abundantly" (John 10:10).

EL LLAMADO DEL BUEN PASTOR

El salmo responsorial de hoy es el Salmo 23 y sin duda es el más conocido de los salmos. Los versos que rezan: "Aunque camine por cañadas oscuras, / nada temo, porque tú vas conmigo: / tu vara y tu cayado me sosiegan" (Salmo 23:4) se vinculan en las lecturas bíblicas de esta semana con el maravilloso relato sobre el camino a Emaús, que escuchamos la semana pasada. El Señor Jesús, nuestro Buen Pastor, está constantemente a nuestro lado. Nos llama por nuestro nombre, atrayéndonos a una más profunda relación con él. Ese llamado, hecho a cada uno de nosotros en el momento de nuestro bautismo, lleva la promesa del Buen Pastor: "Yo he venido para que tengan vida y la tengan en abundancia" (Juan 10:10).
