Fr. Roger's Letter

Dear Friends in St. Dominic

During these Sundays of the Easter Season, the Church takes us back to the Last Supper, giving us a chance to dig deeper into its meaning. Throughout his Last Supper discourse, Christ's constant refrain is: if you love me, you will keep my commandment. That commandment is to love one another as I have loved you, the commandment of Christian charity. These are his parting words to his closest disciples, the last flow of love from his Sacred Heart before it is broken and pierced. They are special words. We need to hear them, to let them sink in.

Jesus knows that these twelve men are normal, fallen human beings. They are weak and ignorant, stubborn, and headstrong. And yet, he also knows that they truly love him. They want to be his disciples. They are just like us: flawed, but committed. He earnestly desires to teach them how to live out their commitment to him, and so he gives them his new commandment: love one another, as I have loved you. That is the mark of a Christian, a true follower of Jesus Christ. It is not in pretty words, fancy rituals, and complicated prayers. It is in following the example of Christ, who gave his life for us on the cross. To give our lives, leaving behind our comfort zones in order to help our neighbors and build a better world, to be truthful, responsible, honest, pure, and faithful even when it feels like we are being crucified, that is how we follow Christ. This is the path to loving him and living life to the full. It was the path he taught his Apostles, it is the path he teaches us, and it is the path he blazed before us by his passion, death, and resurrection.

Congratulations to our children in our Religious Program who made their first communion last week-end (first group - 5/13/17 with 38 children in English) We still have two more groups on May 20th & 27th who will make their first communion (in Spanish).

Congratulations too to our Confirmation students (we have 64 students this year) who will be confirmed by Bishop George Sheltz this Sunday 5/21/17 at 4:00 pm. Please continue to pray for our children attending religious program here in St. Dominic!

Sincerely yours in Christ
Rev. Roger Estorque

Queridos Amigos en San Dominic,

Durante estos domingos de la Pascua, la Iglesia nos lleva a la Última Cena, dándonos la oportunidad de profundizar en su significado. A lo largo de su discurso de la Última Cena, el refrán constante de Cristo es: si me amas, guardarás mi mandamiento. Ese mandamiento es amarnos los unos a los otros como yo los he amado, el mandamiento de la caridad cristiana. Estas son sus palabras de despedida a sus discípulos más cercanos, el último flujo de amor de su Sagrado Corazón antes de que sea roto y traspasado. Son palabras especiales. Necesitamos escucharlos, dejar que se hundan.

Jesús sabe que estos doce hombres son seres humanos normales y caídos. Son débiles e ignorantes, tercos, Y testarudo. Y sin embargo, él también sabe que realmente lo aman. Ellos quieren ser sus discípulos. Son como nosotros: defectuosos, pero comprometidos. Desea encarecidamente enseñarles a vivir su compromiso con él, y así les da su nuevo mandamiento: amarse unos a otros, como yo los he amado. Esa es la marca de un cristiano, un verdadero seguidor de Jesucristo. No es en palabras bonitas, rituales de fantasía y oraciones complicadas. Es siguiendo el ejemplo de Cristo, quien dio su vida por nosotros en la cruz. Dar nuestras vidas, dejar atrás nuestras zonas de confort para ayudar a nuestros vecinos y construir un mundo mejor, ser veraz, responsable, honesto, puro y fiel incluso cuando se siente como que estamos siendo crucificados, así es como seguimos a Cristo. Este es el camino para amarlo y vivir la vida al máximo. Fue el camino que él enseñó a sus Apóstoles, es el camino que nos enseña, y es el camino que él encendió ante nosotros por su pasión, muerte y resurrección.

Felicitaciones a nuestros niños en nuestro Programa Religioso que hicieron su primera comunión el fin de semana pasado (primer grupo - 5/13/17 con 38 niños en inglés) Todavía tenemos dos grupos más el 20 y 27 de mayo que harán su primera comunión (en español).

Felicidades también a nuestros estudiantes de Confirmación (tenemos 64 estudiantes este año) que serán confirmados por el obispo George Sheltz este domingo 5/21/17 a las 4:00 pm. ¡Por favor continúen orando por nuestros niños que asisten a programas religiosos aquí en St. Dominic!

¡Atentamente suyo en Cristo

PEOPLE OF HOPE

Throughout this Easter season the readings have drawn us into the experience of the early church. We have tasted the excitement and zeal of the first Christians. Now, with them, we listen to the words of Saint Peter, who reminds us that when people notice that we are people of hope, we should be ready to explain why. This challenges us. Do others even notice that we are people of hope? In a world often marked by cynicism and hopelessness, do we stand out as people who offer hope and reassurance to others? In today's Gospel Jesus promises that when he leaves the earth he will not leave us orphaned. Today he promises to send his Advocate, the Spirit of truth who will be with us always. Let us acknowledge the presence of the Holy Spirit and ask the Spirit to make us people of hope.

PUEBLO DE ESPERANZA

Durante este tiempo de Pascua las lecturas nos han llevado por la experiencia de la Iglesia en sus primeros días. Hemos saboreado el entusiasmo y el celo de los primeros cristianos. Ahora, con ellos, escuchamos las palabras de san Pedro, que nos recuerda que cuando la gente note que somos pueblo de esperanza, debemos estar preparados para explicar por qué, lo cual nos presenta un reto. ¿Será que otros sí notan que somos pueblo de esperanza? En un mundo marcado por el cinismo y la desesperanza, ¿nos destacamos por ser personas que ofrecen esperanza y confianza a los otros? En el Evangelio de hoy Jesús promete que cuando deje esta tierra no nos dejará huérfanos. Hoy promete enviar al Consolador, el Espíritu de la verdad que siempre permanecerá con nosotros. Reconozcamos la presencia del Espíritu Santo y pidamos al Espíritu que nos haga pueblo de esperanza.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The custom of genuflection is not found everywhere in the Catholic Church. In fact, it is a bit of breach of etiquette to genuflect in most Eastern Catholic Churches. If you're visiting an Eastern Catholic or an Orthodox church, the "when in Rome" rule should be adopted. Watch what the home team is doing! Usually, Eastern Catholics and Orthodox reserve a small portion of the Eucharistic bread for the dying in a cupboard or Eucharistic dove, but it is not a center of attention or devotion. The rule is to make a profound bow, called a "metasis," toward the altar--bowing deeply while making the sign of the cross.

East and West split years before we Westerners began to reserve the Blessed Sacrament prominently in our churches. Thus, the East never changed the original custom of bowing toward the altar. Increasingly, as tabernacles became more widespread in the West and moved into prominent placement within churches, we replaced the bow toward the altar with a genuflection toward the Blessed Sacrament when its place of reservation is visible.

In a church where the Blessed Sacrament is reserved in a special chapel or off the main axis of the building, normally you should bow toward the altar when you enter your pew, because the Eucharistic table is the principal sign of Christ's presence in the church building. If you have ever participated in the liturgy of Dedication of a Church and Altar, there is no mistaking the altar's significance: it is first slathered with chrism and then adorned with a brazier billowing clouds of incense that fill the whole church as a sign of prayer and presence!

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En Uruguay se celebra la fiesta patronal más grande durante el mes de junio. Celebran a san Cono, un santo italiano del siglo doce. En el siglo diecinueve los inmigrantes italianos que vivían en Uruguay deseaban tener una capilla para honrar la memoria de este santo, oriundo de la provincia de Salerno, Italia.

En junio de 1885, las campanas de una modesta capillita anunciaron el recibimiento de una imagen de san Cono que llegó en procesión. Desde entonces esta costumbre italiana se fue haciendo parte integral de la devoción cristiana en Uruguay. Cono fue el hijo único de una pareja anciana que vivía en la ciudad de Teggiano, Salerno. Según la leyenda, una noche mientras dormían, esta pareja soñó un cono de luz que brotaba de la madre. Al nacer el niño decidieron llamarlo Cono. Desde muy niño, Cono mostró un afán por las cosas de Dios y a los dieciséis años ingresó a un monasterio benedictino siguiendo el consejo de una voz interior que lo invitaba a consagrarse al Señor. A los dieciocho, su monasterio se llenó de luz y una voz anunció su muerte, y al día siguiente falleció.
