Fr. Roger's Letter

Dear Friends in St. Dominic

We are now back to the Ordinary time of the Church. We enter this week-end's Gospel scene midstream. Christ is giving his Twelve Apostles instructions for their first missionary journey. The most striking thing about these instructions is the warning. In this passage, Jesus tells them three times not to be afraid - three times! He would not say it if they did not need to hear it. But why would they need to hear it? Because as they go out in Christ's name to spread the Gospel in word and deed, they are going to run into serious difficulties.

Jesus is warning his Apostles that they will meet up with persecution and hardship, just as he will, in a dramatic way, during his Passion. He is warning them that their Christian mission will demand heroic courage, perseverance, and fidelity as they constantly face suffering, calumny, mockery, and opposition. They are going to run into people who will want to destroy them, humiliate them, and even kill them, just because they bear Christ's name and are trying to spread Christ's message.

In the verses immediately preceding the passage we just listened to, Jesus was explicit about this. He told them: Beware of men: they will hand you over to the Sanhedrin and scourge you in their synagogues. You will be dragged before governors and kings for my sake, to bear witness before them.... You will be hated by all men on account of my name. Those same warnings apply to us too. Being a Christian is not like joining a tennis club. There is a spiritual battle going on in this fallen world. Whenever we are truly following Christ and building up his Kingdom, the powers of darkness, the devil and his minions, don't like it.

Sincerely yours in Christ
Rev. Roger Estorque

What you hear whispered, proclaim on the rooftops

Queridos Amigos en San Dominic,

Ahora estamos de vuelta al tiempo ordinario de la Iglesia. Entramos en la escena del Evangelio de este fin de semana en medio de la corriente. Cristo está dando a sus Doce Apóstoles instrucciones para su primer viaje misionero. Lo más llamativo de estas instrucciones es la advertencia. En este pasaje, Jesús les dice tres veces que no tengan miedo - ¡tres veces! No lo diría si no necesitaban oírlo. ¿Pero por qué tendrían que escucharlo? Porque como salen en el nombre de Cristo para difundir el Evangelio en palabra y obra, van a tener serias dificultades.

Jesús está advirtiéndoles a sus apóstoles que se encontrarán con persecución y penurias, tal como lo hará de manera dramática durante su Pasión. Les advierte que su misión cristiana exigirá coraje heroico, perseverancia y fidelidad mientras enfrentan constantemente sufrimiento, calumnia, burla y oposición. Van a encontrarse con personas que quieren destruirlos, humillarlos e incluso matarlos, simplemente porque llevan el nombre de Cristo y están tratando de difundir el mensaje de Cristo.

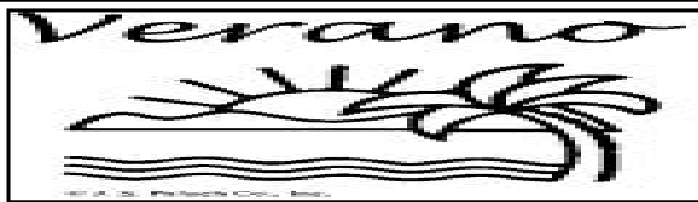

En los versículos inmediatamente anteriores al pasaje que acabamos de escuchar, Jesús fue explícito sobre esto. Les dijo: Guardados de los hombres; os entregarán al Sanedrín y os azotarán en sus sinagogas. Serás arrastrado delante de gobernadores y reyes por mí, para dar testimonio delante de ellos ... Serás odiado por todos los hombres por causa de mi nombre. Esas mismas advertencias se aplican a nosotros también. Ser cristiano no es como unirse a un club de tenis. Hay una batalla espiritual en esta Caído mundo.

Cuando estamos verdaderamente siguiendo a Cristo y edificando su Reino, los poderes de las tinieblas, el diablo y sus secuaces, no les gusta.

¡Atentamente suyo en Cristo
Rev. Roger Estorque

FEAR NOT

How do people find hope in the face of suffering and death? That is the question addressed by today's scriptures. We hear of the suffering of Jeremiah and the psalmist. We hear of the death that "reigned from Adam to Moses" (Romans 5:14). We hear of the fears of the Twelve as Jesus sends them out into the world to preach and heal.

Through all this tribulation one message rings out loud and clear--"Do not be afraid!" The God who saved Jeremiah and the psalmist and Jesus is fully present to save us through the gracious gift of Jesus Christ. We have nothing and no one to

¡NO TENGAN MIEDO!

¿Cómo es que las personas encuentran paz frente al sufrimiento y la muerte? Ese es el mensaje de las Escrituras de hoy. Escuchamos el sufrimiento de Jeremías y del salmista. Escuchamos de la muerte que "reino desde Adán hasta Moisés" (Romanos 5:14). Escuchamos de los miedos de los Doce cuando Jesús los envió a las periferias para predicar y sanar.

En medio de toda esta tribulación hay un mensaje que suena fuerte y claro: "¡No tengan miedo!" El Dios que salvó a Jeremías y al salmista y a Jesús está plenamente presente para salvarnos por medio del extraordinario don de Jesucristo. No tenemos nada.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The Eucharistic Prayers at the heart of our liturgy have a long history, beginning with the extemporaneous prayers of the early Christians. The presiders gave thanks from their hearts, not from any prearranged text, over the gifts of bread and wine. When the assembly had the sense that enough was said, someone would call out "Amen!" and that was that. For the most part, the plan flowed directly from Jewish meal prayers, which always recalled God's mighty deeds. Some other markers and signposts were added almost everywhere fairly early, like the presider's call to attention: "Lift up your hearts!" Scholars have provided us with translations of many early texts. These have actually helped us craft new liturgical prayers, because until the liturgical reforms of forty years ago, no one could recall any prayer but the Roman Canon, now called Eucharistic Prayer I. For hundreds of years in the West, it was our only Eucharistic Prayer, and it was only in Latin. But the history of our Eucharistic Prayers is amazingly fruitful, and models have come down to us that have yielded new insights and expressions. The old custom of improvising texts according to a master plan has not endured, but we have now rediscovered a plan of standardizing the text while allowing for a great variety.

TRADICIONES DE NUESTRA FE

En 1769 los misioneros franciscanos establecieron la primera misión en lo que hoy es la ciudad de San Diego, California. Bajo la dirección de fray Junípero Serra, los hermanos menores pudieron establecer otras ocho misiones, incluyendo la ciudad de San Francisco, en 1776. Junípero o José Miguel Serra, fue hijo de padres campesinos de la Isla de Mallorca, España. Ingresó a la Orden de los hermanos menores (franciscanos) a los dieciséis años y con el tiempo, llegó a ser profesor de filosofía, pero su verdadero deseo era ser misionero en el continente americano, lo que hoy conocemos como Hemisferio Occidental. En 1749, su orden religiosa lo envió a México como administrador del Colegio Apostólico. Poco a poco se fue desprendiendo de sus cargos académicos para establecer misiones entre los indígenas. Aunque algunos afirman lo contrario, Junípero fue arduo defensor de los nativos. En California, más de una vez tuvo problemas con los soldados españoles, debido a que éstos abusaban de los amerindios, problemas que lo llevaron a defender los derechos humanos de los nativos ante el Virrey en México. Sus esfuerzos por cristianizar los indígenas de California tuvieron como resultado más de 6000 bautizos durante sus quince años en esa región.
